There are many lagoons and backwaters here indicating that the river has changed its course many times. The Murray is wide with spectacular twisted snags high out of the water and beautiful white sandy beaches on the points.

This section was charted in very low water.

FISHING CLOSED SEASON
All fishing is banned between the Tocumwal road bridge and the Yarravonga Weir between 1 September and 30 November. Setlines are banned in this section all year.

All private property bordering the Murray in New South Wales is privately owned at least to the water's edge. Victoria has a Chain (50m) crown reserve along the Murray [see Boating Hints]
